Background

In 2025, the global community will mark the thirtieth anniversary of the Fourth World Conference on Women and the adoption of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action (1995), and 10 years of the 2030 Agenda and the Sustainable Development Goals. This milestone prompts a critical review of state actions and compliance with the platform's objectives, a process commencing in 2023 and culminating in a global assessment at the 69th session of the Commission on the Status of Women in 2025. The Beijing+30 review process will engage stakeholders from the government, private sector, civil society organizations, and youth to foster dialogue and collaboration, bringing local realities to the global stage.

The UN Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE) and UN Women Europe and Central Asia Regional Office (ECARO) will jointly organize the Regional Review Meeting in Geneva on 21-22 October 2024. This meeting will assess the 30-year review of the Beijing Declaration and Platform for Action in the UNECE region and its alignment with the 2030 Agenda.

In preparation for the Regional Review Meeting, UN Women ECARO is conducting a series of consultations with a diverse range of stakeholders, including civil society and young people, to inform and shape the Beijing+30 review process. Two consultations with civil society organizations were held in May and June, and this upcoming consultation will be the final one before the Regional Review Meeting.
